

I am 3 or 4 years old. Very soon I am going to my new school

I am going to get a new uniform to wear to my school and it looks like this:

Mummy & daddy will get me new big girl or boy pants to wear underneath my new trousers.

There will be lots of boys and girls to play with in my new school and they will wear the same uniform as me. The boys and girls will wear pants underneath their uniforms too because there are no nappies in school.

In school all the children do their pees and poos in the toilet. The toilets in school are special because Bob the Builder built them! There are little toilets and little sinks just for 3 or 4 year olds to use!

Before I go to big school I have get myself ready. I have to get lots of sleep. I have to practice putting on my own coat so I can go out and play on the big blue slide. I have to practice wearing pants and using the toilet in my house.

It's nicer wearing pants than nappies because when you wear pants you can climb higher and you can go down the slide much quicker!

If I do my pees and poos in the toilet I can flush them away and my pants and trousers will stay clean! Sometimes when I am practicing wearing pants I might have a little accident but accidents are ok and mummy and daddy won't get cross. If I am a great boy/girl and use the toilet my mummy, daddy and teacher will be so pleased!
